

Campus building OMICRON electronics GmbH

Klaus, Austria

The new campus of OMICRON electronics is a perfect detailed, prefabricated wooden building. All used materials are environmentally tested. There are specially furnished rooms, which connect the floors and they provide complementary informal meeting, relaxation and inspiration zones. A gallery contains a CNC modeled biomorphic large sculpture of Cross Laminated Timber from Stora Enso, which invites for sitting, walking and spiral climbing to the next floor.

General

Delivery year
2014

Building type
Others

Photo credit: Studio 22 Marcel Hagen

Products

Products
CLT

Product volume (m³)
235

Photo credit: Studio 22 Marcel Hagen

 Team

Architect

Peter Nußbaumer Dipl. Arch. – Partner;
Dietrich | Untertrifaller Architekten ZT
GmbH

Main contractor

Gerhard Berchtold Zimmerei GmbH

Photo credit: Studio 22 Marcel Hagen